Dear Dr./Mr./Ms. Official's Last Name,

CLO exists to help students needing financial assistance attend the University of Florida by providing a student-run cooperative living organization where dormitory styled room and board costs half as much as similar on-campus living arrangements.

The Collegiate Living Organization, located one block from the main UF campus, is now taking applications for the summer and fall semesters. The application form is available at http://cloliving.org/docs/CLO%20app%20May2006_v3.pdf

Additional information is available as follows:

- The attached CLO Flyer is our primary recruitment document. It provides an overview of the organization and membership requirements. It is also on-line at <http://www.cloalumni.org/flyer.pdf>
- The CLO Web Site that provides the application form and other details is located at www.cloliving.org
- The student officers and board members wrote the CLO Fall 2006 Newsletter that they sent to the Alumni in December. It:
 - Describes challenges being met by the student management team
 - Documents reduced cost of living at CLO vs. living on campus
 - Describes social activities and learning opportunities
 - Provides testimonials from students living there now
 - Is on-line at <http://www.cloalumni.org/clonewsletterfall2006.pdf>
 - The Spring 2007 Newsletter is on-line at <http://www.cloalumni.org/clonewsletterspring2007.pdf>

Please forward our letter and the attached CLO Flyer to a worthy/needy student that hopes to attend the University of Florida.

Thank you for your help.
